

Firstly, you are in a main period of Saturn, in a very special "Sade" period, where Saturn doubly influences your Life and with that collects/gives you karma. This period is very present till 09/19/04, and will give you important changes, that will direct your future Life, and you will also get spiritual experiences and directives for future.

This time psychical breakdowns will appear, which finally wants to teach us what is really important for spirituality. Saturn is the greatest tutor among the planets and if we accept His advices, which wants us to progress, we will receive big changes in spiritual and material Life.

Firstly we need to learn to tolerate, what is a pre-condition for everything else. When we are bearable we will know in which direction we should go and what to stick to.

It is important to emphasize great possibilities that are seen in your natal card and on which basis we conclude that a spiritual mission is waiting for you, which you feel subconsciously.

As Mars is indicator of your Soul, Venus your Mind, we can conclude that you are very demanding person especially when we think about intelligence, intellect and beauty in general. In combination with Merkur, which is dispositor of your entire horoscope, that makes you a person that can trickle through people and wants to make a Life worth it.

First house, that's ascendant in a emotive sign of Cancer gives you sensibility(sensitivity?) but with which you exaggerate things and situations, what can put you one step back.

Second house, which is in sign of Lion can be seen Saturn and Venus. That will give you a good economic situation through Life which will slowly but steadily progress and wisely spend. You will always aspire for inner seriousness and your standard in all things.

Third and twelve house are the most alight(important) in your natal card, because in them are three planets (Mercury, Sun, Rahu(?)). All is situated in growing house of wishes and initiative. You are a dynamic person, which impresses with his intellect but stumbles because of haste. With no spirituality in your Life will come to total confusion, so you should start a deep and wide spiritual search/quest ... that means you should expand your knowledge and on the other side use introspection, intuition and spritual reasoning.

Still important are nine and ten house (Pisces, Ram) and in them are Ketu and Gullik. / Ketu is like Rahu a moon's satellite and both of them are special carmic indicators, which like Gullik (that's Saturn's satellite) make direction of person's fate. Your in perfection aspire for illumination and perfection and in the same time you want to make a career in wordly Life.

Your twelve house presents Gemini(not 100% sure translation), gives a dot on your Life what we are talking about. Jupiter, Moon, Mars are situated in the twelve house of illumination, dreams and visions. Surely you do have dream and clear wishes about yourself that lead you to progress and to have dreams and visions about your future.

Confusion will flew out if you place a solid foundation for a spiritual Life till 09/2004 and then everything that upsets you become a key to your illumination.

Greg!

Want to find a deeper truth and meaning in life; I like your inner Quest for Truth and that you still search on and on. I like that that you decided to find friends among scouts and seriously accepted Christianity with sacraments.

Thanks that you pardoned me when I screwed it up. If you want I will lend you a game or a good book you probably didn't read - it speaks about philosophy on very simple and pleasant way.

Take care still on.

Stane

Greg!

As I told you on a confrontation I admire your scouting speed: to persist on such activities I don't come. Spiritual sky means a lot to you and you love to discover it, but you should also more remember this rational world - of course in its right measure. I wish you a lot of success in studying in second gear and to find the right case in your Life, as true philosopher. Keep on, Stane

Now the inner monolog I promised:

-I don't agree with myself-am not right-we doesn't feel you participating actively-tabula rasa isn't everything-I dive too much in spirituality-that's not good, not even OK-let rationalism be a value here-moderation rule-let Life be Good-everything OK-sacrament of confession-sacrament of reconciliation-just IS ...

Dear Greg!

Firstly I would like to apologize if I ever insulted you. Please take notice that it wasn't made in consciousness. Perhaps we do not think about some things the same and I therefore persistent at my aspect and my point. Forgive, ... but you are very good person and more than I realize you (God), more I discover talents and richness in you. Thank you for letting me learn a great deal of my background story from you. I wish you all the Sun in your way you wish. :-) Tja'sa

I wish you all the rays of Sun you long for - Grega

Even if I didn't see you on camp (because he came just for last day -remark of my poor self) I will write you something. What really kicks my ass when I am with you is that you are so stubborn. Otherwise you are OK, my boy. Thank you for things we encountered together, because without you I would feel much of the things otherwise as I have.

Hello, Smart duck!

I hope that you had pleasant holidays in Spain. I hope you will be accepted in University /that year I wanted to study pre-school education/. Have a nice time also in your future.

Grega!

It is clear to me that I realized you more this year than in the last year of the Gymnasium, when we were schoolmates. With your arrival in scout group you changed a lot towards a good personality. It is obvious that our scout clan means a lot to you. Sometimes you could obey the rules more and stop before you think and atop especially before you say something otherwise you are OK.

CANDID, BE MORE ATTENTIVE AND RELAXED

///Jesus Christ understand my SOS, because He knows God better than all of us in clan. Notwithstanding that you lost yourself in school ... the second arrival of the Saviour will change a lot of things, especially those of other world. You believed in world-weariness, and your Heart is miles away from honest Life. A healthy though and a deep conversation would change you more than your self-talking beliefs. You would took seriously your psychology study and would become an interesting man and an excellent psychologist.

Greetings, Duck!

I am glad you had fine time on MOOT* in Mexico, what is seen in your disposition/mood at your return to Slovenia. You are very happy and you are interested in many things, but you are sometimes very stubborn. You will have to learn to rely on yourself and (sometimes) to reconcile your stubbornness with persistence and bring to light your desires and you will be "a moment" closer to perfection

(1998 hike) Dear Grega! Thank you for coming among us. Thank you for I am learning beside you, that I should not give up, even if everything looks impossible. Thanks for your endeavour. It is true you are a child of God and God loves you infinitely, it doesn't matter how you imagine Him. Thank you for sharing your life with me on that evening; that means a lot to me. Thank you for being proud on yourself and that you love yourself! Thank you for paying attention and that you see a lot of things (e.g. where somebody needs help). Keep on thinking a lot! <BABS I, Barbara Lesnik, Temperament gazelle - that's her scout name; my is Smart duck)

(1999 hike) Dear Grega! Thank you for your perseverance and faith in life, thank for fighting. In that way you really can grow spiritually. Life is wicked and difficult but it is not bad to forget that it is also very beautiful and full of surprises! It is true that some have certain "gifts" when given birth (but I do not think talents but e.g. family). But we should know, that everybody is intended for this what life gives him/her. Thank you for being with us. BABS I

(2000 hike) Dear Grega! It seems to me that you are very persistent and strong. On this level I admire you a lot. I don't know you well rather; I don't know much about your family and your past. It looks like that your life was never really a bed of roses, with the difference toward the most of others. Thank you for being among us, even if we know how to be impertinent and unjust. I am apologizing for all "pathetic" words, which was said ever in an ugly tone. It looks like that you are very vulnerable and tender, that you reflect a lot. Thank you for sharing a life from completely personal side - with your thinking. It looks positively to me that you know what you are interested in and that you are eagerly developing your young talents (which are definitely many). Go on like this. BABS I

Barbara has a special part in my Heart, in spite of that we never spent time alone together. She is really a mystery for me and is in my "crazy system" for finding my twin Soul (I'd much rather like to say contemplatory Soul but haven't found it in dictionary so I do not know how to spell it). She passed all tests for now, and is on my prayer-list also as I want to know her better someday.

Summer 1998

What I really like on you is that that you found out the way of life and approach/view to the world that suits you. I admire your persistent search for truth. You are advanced, but never too advanced - you already know that. Your thinking surprised me, and I believe nobody among us can confront you in that area. I liked that during the year in our scout group you were ever more relaxingly participating in our group.

If you have a feeling or it is true that some are not respecting you and do not take you seriously, I wish you that would change and that they would realize that you are very rich.

All well, Luka

Summer 1999

Ahoj Gregal!

You look very unusual person. Sometimes I cannot understand you - your philosophy. Perhaps it is too difficult for me, because I am not so much inside it. But it seems to me, that you have so many advices for others in connection with life philosophies and at the same time you do not always think the same you speak. If happiness and love are important for you then I really cannot understand why do you make an exception with the father. I suppose he also is not guilty that is the way he is. Where it is the most difficult show that you are strong. I can see that you have one very big problem, that matters you and I know that you know where it is its source - from parents relationship and later relationship of friends around you. I want to tell you that I am happy to see that you still search, even not in desirable situation ... And I want to tell you, that here are we folks and if you want and think that you need it open yourself more to somebody. Be persistent and continue to search your meaning in christianity.

Smart duck!

How did you feel in Spain/note: I was there 14 days on a pedagogic camp/?
Are you fine there?

You are very simple, honest boy and I like that on you. I will never forget your scout-baptism, where you showed your openness and real scout will!
I wish you a lot of happiness in your study-year and hope you will be able to maintain connection with our group!

Dear Grega:

Another year is around. It was nice. I personally liked the best peace I felt on salt pans. It gave me energy to persist on. * * * * * Thank you for your trust. I can see through your words, that it really isn't easy for you. But I think, that it is always worth of perseverance to better, to more beautiful. More difficult is the path, more beautiful and richer is its goal. I wish you that you would continue to search in persist on your path. I like that you show happiness, but sometimes I cannot understand it or it doesn't appears to be acceptable for the moment.

I think it is important, that your imminent and people that you will meet understand so it won't come to wrong conclusions.

So, Grega. Thanks for all moments, that I shared with you. In the future I wish you - HAPPINESS.

Gregal!

Thanks fo being so spontaeous, to share with us your thoughts and ideas. I think it is very important to search for meaning in life. I admire your persistence at singing and wish you a lot of happiness in life. You seem a good person to me and have a big sense for humour, at your comments I have to laugh from heart. They don't look stupid for me. Thanks for all, Anka

Even if you sometimes are not interested in discussions, I am very happy when you share a part of your mentality with us.

Thanks for your attention and readiness to help. I like because you dive in spirituality and with that you close to fulfillment of your task, you have in this world.

I wish you would find peace in your soul and that would always aspire for growth to heigher. Best luck!

Dear Grega!

At you I like that you are generous and watchful. I like also that you dive in things and think a lot and that you have a sense for philosophy and meditation.

I wish you that you would in spirituality in which you invest a lot of energy, find strength for life-challenges and that you would good fulfill your life task. Thanks for being with us! Best luck!

P.S.

Sorry there were not much time for our conversations on this route. There will be opportunity!

Hi!

Do you remember your baptism. I was selected to put you on Fire of Action. Hope I didn't exhaust you too much. On the contrary - you are not stupid (you think a lot) I hope it wasn't too serious for your start. But I don't know why you picked a name as Smart duck? //I was dreaming of Holden //the Catcher in the Rye// many times //suggested reading: Rhanna - Christine Marion Fraser -> you will be surprised of the balance of both stories and its connections// and as Holden likes ducks He is also my inner child that needs company and loves to be in some service to this world. He feels unworthy, yet he makes progress; he is silly, yet he lives in heart; he doesn't care of Phobbie, yet he belongs to his Soul; he is inadequate to the world yet he is friend of everybody in need; he lives in sorrow worlds, yet he is close to God. Frankly speaking he is my idol and I want to be his friend once and forever, yet I am living undisciplined life what He hates the most.

--And as I like Holden and Holden likes ducks and ducks mean to me freedom as I don't have home here in Europe I also want to fly out of my cage <- knowing that Silence will liberate me.

Why Smart?

- 1.)I know how to progress through my enemies mistakes and as such am not willing to be someone's else dream <- knowing that it is crazy being open to everybody.
- 2.)Confrontation as a shelter: it is the best to explain politely and kindly to enemy Your(mine whatever who is the judge) tactic - please believe me you will be terribly misunderstood ... Don't believe? Tell a shrink you are abusing his friends as you don't know how to protect yourself (my example) and probably if your context is well supported he will just send you home, praying you will never return.
- 3.)Self-motivation.
- 4.)Want to be kind to animals as yes I am an animal inwardly.
- 5.)As I contemplated before my High school final exam in yellow duck.
- 6.)As I believe we have progressed from sea squirrels. Don't believe me? Ask your students what they do in their private time ...
- 7.)As I would love to be with one Finnish girl - Anna Porkka!!
- 8.)As I love to travel and I like hot cakes from sunny Mexico.
- 9.)As I see the thoughts of animals.
- 10.)Finally I want to find my dog Jaka a good company of ducks in Heaven and get them human Lives in India. I was dressing him and ordering him to speak with ducks. He said he doesn't like that -I insisted every time!- as they remember Him on chickens and as He almost send one of them to spiritual sky. He is a little black hunter with a big white dot on a top of His tail.//
In hope we good understood each other on our hike. Have a lovely time, Toma'z
